An Injury To One - Is An Injury To All!

WE ARE ALL PALESTINE ACTION!

The IWW are unequivocally opposed to the UK Government's attempt to proscribe Palestine Action as a terrorist group. Acting to prevent genocide is a humane gesture in the interest of the public good. Palestine Action have acted to prevent harm to unarmed civilians.

The attack on Palestine Action is a definitive State decision to attack the right to protest.

Historically, workers, women, racialised minorities and other oppressed groups have gained greater freedoms through forms of protest that disrupt business as usual. Successive UK Government's have suppressed the rights of workers to organise and protest. We continue to oppose these denials of our freedoms, as we have done since the IWWs establishment in 1905.

The UK Government's attack on Palestine Action is designed to intimidate people who are opposing a genocide.

The IWW will not be terrorised into silence by the UK Government. The attack on Palestine Action is an attack on all workers. An Injury to One, Is an Injury to All! We Are All Palestine Action!

SOLIDARITY ACTION WITH PALESTINE
AT OUR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

SOLIDARITY WITH WORKERS IN PALESTINE!

Wobblies held a Palestine solidarity action in Edinburgh city centre, during our recent IWW WISE-RA annual conference.

The action followed a fantastic presentation to members by representatives of ZIONIST FREE LEITH.

Members extended their thanks to everyone who took part in the discussion, to all the fellow workers who travelled from many international locations to the conference, and of course to those who joined online.

If there is a Palestine solidarity action near you, please attend and take part.

SUCCESSFUL IWW ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN EDINBURGH

IWW Ireland Delegates at the WISE-RA Annual Conference

IWW delegates were overcome with joy to attend the 2025 IWW conference in Edinburgh. The packed schedule over the three-day event saw discussion of and voting on several internal motions along with reports from the internal sections and a range of interesting talks.

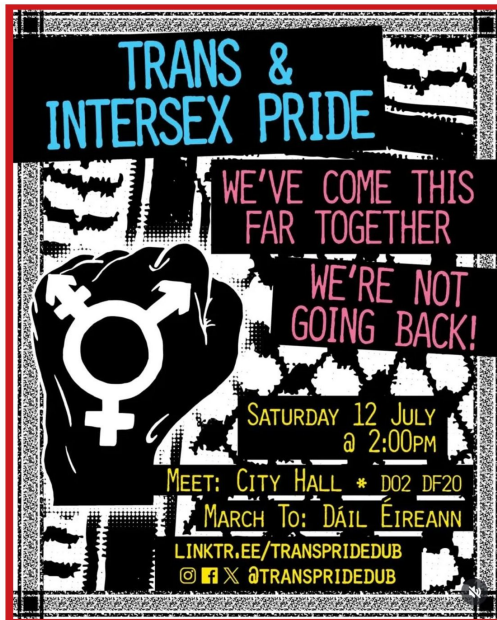

These talks included the Pan African Workers Association and the challenges facing migrant workers in the UK, Earth Strike and the ways we can tackle the climate crisis, IWW-Palestine solidarity and the fantastic work being done by our hosts in Edinburgh on the Zionism Free Zones.

We also heard from our Access Officer and our Equalities Committee, sparking off a number of valuable and much-needed discussions, before attending a launch of the book 'The Precarious Migrant Worker: the Socialisation of Precarity' by Panos Theodoropoulos.

We brought our solidarity with Palestine to the streets of Edinburgh during our lunch break and also enjoyed a talk on our late lamented fellow worker James Connolly, right underneath the plaque marking his birthplace on Cowgate.

This was after an insightful talk on stammering as a trade union issue and the ways in which unions can improve their own procedures. We were informed that Connolly, too, had had a stammer, which really added to the sense that the issues we face as workers today are very similar to those faced by workers centuries before.

We're really grateful to our beloved hosts in Edinburgh and to all those who made the conference happen. Solidarity forever and saoirse don Phalaistín!

TRANS RIGHTS ARE WORKERS RIGHTS!

Trans and Intersex Pride Dublin is back for our 6th annual Trans and Intersex Pride March!

Members of the IWW will take part in this annual event and call upon all fellow workers to attend on July 12th, 2PM Dublin City Hall. Demand action on trans healthcare, to demand an end to IGM, to show solidarity with the trans community internationally, and to say that we've come this far together, WE'RE NOT GOING BACK!

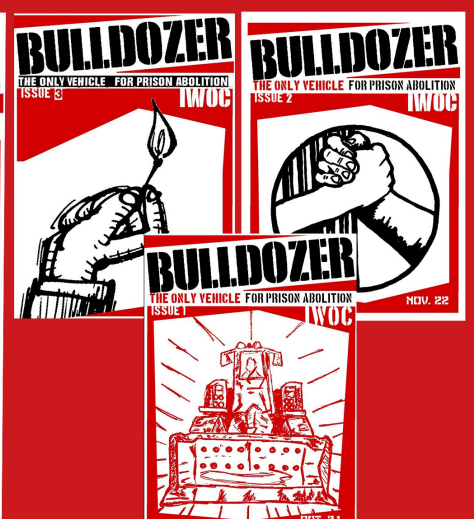

Make sure to share with friends, family, co-workers, and make sure to come to the protest!
